Caricatures and Cartoons by FitzRoy

ARTIST AT A GLANCE

FitzRoy James - Cartoonist and Caricaturist

His work can be seen at the Victoria Fox Gallery, Soapstone Center for the Arts, and on the Editorial Page of Champion Newspapers

A native of Trinidad, Mr. James worked as a political caricaturist for Trinidad's major newspapers from 1958 - 1965. He worked as a mechanical artist with several of New York's top ad agencies during the 60's and studied graphic design at the Cooper Union University and the School of Visual Arts in New York. He has lectured on Black History with an emphasis on the Caribbean connection at Spelman, Morehouse and Georgia State. He teaches cartooning at the Soapstone Center in Decatur and contributes editorial cartoons for the local community newspaper "The Champion".
